Campus Ministry - Spring Break 2011

UK Newman Center students worked with students from four other universities on a total of four houses in the Ft. Lauderdale area.

After a stop at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta to watch the UK men's SEC tournament basketball game, twenty UK Newman Center students spent the night at the Valdosta State University Newman Center. Then they completed a road trip to Florida to work at Habitat for Humanity projects in Ft. Lauderdale and Dade County for the rest of the week.

UK students worked with ten students from Indiana University on the Dade County Habitat project.

Spotlight on New Board Members

Anne Steele is a physician and specializes in child and adolescent psychiatry. She is president of the Kentucky Chapter of Child & Adolescent Psychiatry, is Assembly Delegate to National Academy of Child & Adolescent Psychiatry, and she is on the volunteer faculty to University of Kentucky Psychiatry Department where she works with residents in training. She and her husband, Kevin Nelson are members of Holy Spirit Parish.

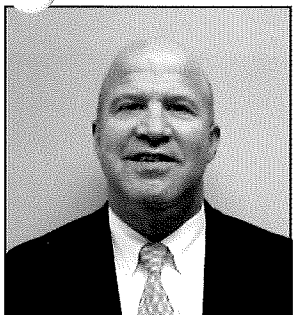

Charles Knapp was born and raised in Evansville, Indiana where he attended St. Anthony Grade School and Mater Dei High School. He received a BA degree from St. Procopius College (now Illinois Benedictine University), Lisle, IL and a Ph. D. degree in Aero Space (Biomedical) Engineering from the University of Notre Dame. He joined the faculty of the College of Engineering at the University of Kentucky in 1968 and was the Director of the Center for Biomedical Engineering for 13 years before he retired in 2005. He and his wife Ann raised three children in Lexington where their children attended St. Paul's Grade School and Lexington Catholic High School. Charlie and Ann are members of Holy Spirit Parish, Newman Center. They have 5 grandchildren and live north of Georgetown.

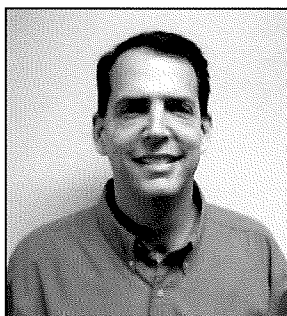

Jerry Nachtwey is originally from Manitowoc, Wisconsin. He earned his B.S. in English from University of Wisconsin - Madison and his PhD in English from Loyola University - Chicago. Jerry moved to Lexington in 2006 when he took a position as an assistant professor of English at Eastern Kentucky University. Jerry and his wife Maggie Frozena have two small boys and have been members of Holy Spirit Parish since 2006.

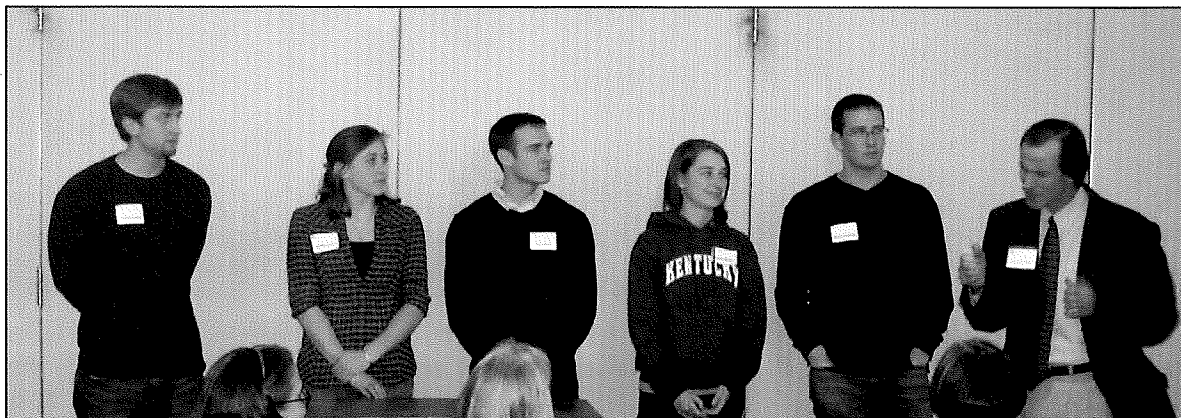

They bought a house in Richmond in 2009, but just couldn't give up being members of Holy Spirit Parish. He has also been a lector at Holy Spirit Parish since 2008.

Dan Murner is an attorney at Landrum & Shouse and is also an adjunct professor at Salmon P Chase College of Law. He was born in LA and has lived on both the west coast and east coast—mainly New Jersey. Dan did his undergraduate studies at Boston College and graduated from law school at UK. He is involved in Henry Clay Football Boosters and is a Southeastern Baseball Babe Ruth coach. Dan and his wife, Beth, and four children have been members of Holy Spirit Parish for 10 years. Beth is a Sunday school teacher and Dan is a lector.

Joe Warren is 46 years old and has lived his entire life in Lexington, KY. He and his wife Susan have been married for 21 years and they have three adopted children, Matthew, Christian and Olivia ages 8, 4 & 3 respectively. He graduated from Lexington Catholic High School in 1982 and in 1987, graduated from UK with a degree in accounting. Joe has worked in accounting since 1987 with the last 10 years being for Thermal Balance, Inc., an engineering firm here in Lexington. He has served two terms on the St. Paul finance council, and 4 years as a board member for Bluegrass Christian Adoption Services. Joe and Susan have been members of Holy Spirit Parish since 1993.
